~~(1) An applicant may request permission of the Board to be allowed to substitute another internationally accredited exam administered by an independent agency in lieu of the National Certification Exam for Therapeutic Massage and Bodywork. The request must accompany the application form and fee, and documentation should be attached which shows that the exam requested to be substituted is internationally accredited, with a statement of the applicant giving the grounds upon which the applicant bases his or her request. The Board shall review the request and documentation, and will inform the applicant within a reasonable time of the Board's decision to grant or deny the substitution. The Board may request further information from the applicant or the independent agency administering the exam in order to render its decision.~~The Board may approve any national standardized examination.
